By The Associated Press.

BEAUMONT, Texas, May 27.—The city of Sour Lake is virtually a camp tonight because of a report received last night that a band of hooded men was en route from Liberty to get revenge because of the burning and feathering of Justice of the Peace Joe J. Devere of Sour Lake last Saturday night. Devere furnished was a citizen of Liberty, where his parents and other relatives reside. Following his capture, Devere was taken to Liberty and returned to Sour Lake Wednesday, where he opened his office as a public official. Sour Lake and Liberty are towns of about 2,000 population, about twenty miles apart.

Following the news reaching Sour Lake that the Liberty party was en route, Sheriff W. L. Nelson was alerted at Kountze, the county seat, and he hurried to Sour Lake, where he arrived in fifty minutes, and there men, armed, waited throughout the night on all
